†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI TASLIMUDDIN): (a) to (c) No such complaints regarding sale of imported food stuffs after lapse of their expiry period date has come to the notice of the Department of Consumer Affairs. This subject comes within the purview of the Prevention of Food Adulteration Act; 1954 and the Rules framed thereunder, administered by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare. Implementation of the said Act and Rules are entrusted with the Food (Health) Authorities of the States/UTs. They have been instructed to lift samples of imported food articles sold in the market and take action including prosecution of offenders in the cases where the samples are found to be adulterated/ misbranded or violating the labeling provisions of the said Act and Rules.

The Department of Commerce has also issued a Notification under section 5 of the Foreign Trade (Development and Regulation) Act, 1992 to the effect that all edible/food products, domestic sale and manufacture of which are governed by prevention of Food Adulteration Act, 1954 shall also be subject to the condition that at the time of importation, the products are having a valid shelf life of not less than 60 % of their original shelf life. Accordingly all Port/Airport Health Officers and Custom Collectors at Ports/ Airports have been advised to ensure that all the imported food articles comply with all the above provisions before the same are released into the country for human consumption.
